

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2011 – DAY 2

Clubs and Activities

Soul Patrol (ELC Christian Fellowship) is cancelled for today. See you next week.

Sports

Attention all students that are new to Crossley this semester: If you attended another school last semester and are interested in playing sports while you are at Crossley, you must see Ms. Amadio in the gym, as soon as possible to begin transfer paperwork for athletics. See her today!

Congratulations to the Senior Girls volleyball team for their win over St. Paul last night and for finishing first in the Zone. There were great contributions from the entire line-up showing support, teamwork and skill. Way to go ladies!!!! The team is reminded that there are two very important practices on Tuesday and Wednesday next week.

Congratulations Crossley Swim Team!!! At yesterday's SOSSA swim finals the Cyclone team did an awesome job, placing 6th overall against much larger teams. Special congratulations to the seven swimmers who have advanced to OFSAA:

Placing first in their events were: Boaz Allon in his 100m backstroke; Kathryn Hrycusko in her 100m breastroke; Andrew Hrycusko in his 100m breastroke; Devon Casey placed 2nd in his 50m backstroke but made the OFSAA qualifying time and the Open Girls 400m relay consisting of Molly Higenell, Emily Durand, Emily Gearing, and Kathryn Hrycusko won their event in a nail biter. Way to Go team. Would all the swimmers advancing to OFSAA please see Mrs. Fee sometime today.

Girls Hockey - The second playoff game is Wednesday February 23rd at Ridgeway Arena. If you need a ride please see Mrs. Isaac. Release time is 1:40pm.

ANNOUNCEMENTS – FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2011 (CONTINUED - PAGE 2)

Students' Council

Other

From Math Contests: Just a reminder for all those grade 9, 10, and 11 students who have signed up to write one of the University of Waterloo math contests. The contests are next Thursday during period 1. Take the opportunity to practice with some old contests during this holiday weekend. See Mrs. Fee if you have any questions.

The Library will be closed all day today for the EcoMentors workshop. (Feb. 15, 17, 18)

Reminder that Monday is Family Day – there will be no school. Enjoy your weekend.