

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 8, 2012 – DAY 1

Clubs and Activities

National Sweater Day is TOMORROW! To show your support for this World Wildlife Fund Canada's initiative we are asking you to wear your funkiest sweater since we will be turning down the heat by three degrees!! E.A.R.T.H. spotters will be around tomorrow awarding prizes to those who participate. If you sign our Sweater Day Pledge tomorrow ... pledging to use energy in a more conservative way ... your name will be entered in a draw to win a fabulous prize. Stop by the table in the cafeteria tomorrow during lunch. And we haven't forgotten about our teachers ... spotters will be entering the names of all teachers turning down the heat in their classrooms and they will also have a chance to win a fantastic prize. So Crossley ... Wear a sweater tomorrow to show your support!

Sports

Attention Crossley Swim Team: SOSSA is quickly approaching so it is very important that everybody be at practice today. Also, there will be an important team meeting tomorrow at the start of senior lunch in room 314. That's swim team meeting tomorrow at the start of senior lunch. (Feb. 8, 9)
