

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TUESDAY, MAY 10, 2011 – DAY 2

Clubs and Activities

Attention all drama students past and present. The drama department is travelling Friday to see a political satire called "Animal Farm" featuring our very own Dana Lea McKenzie, acting alongside professional actors. We will miss classes Friday afternoon only. We depart Crossley at 10:45 am, and return in time for buses. Tickets are $14.00. If you'd like a permission form, see Ms. Benson in the drama room. Limited seats. Tickets will be offered on a first come first serve basis! (May 6, 9, 10)

There will be a full marching band practice tomorrow after school. (May 10, 11)

Sports

Crossley's baseball team started its season at Harold Black Park yesterday. The team started out strong, taking a 2-1 lead into the final inning, but was unable to stop the final push from St. Paul, losing 9-2. The next practice will happen on Wednesday at 4:00, and the next game is on Thursday at Harold Black Park against Ridgeway. (May 10)

Girls Slo-Pitch team will practice at Marlene Streit Park (by the pool) tomorrow at 2:45 - We will have an exhibition game against Notre Dame. Please let Mrs. Isaac know if you will not be there. (May 10, 11)

Students' Council

All students running for a position on next year's Students' Council (that have not been acclaimed) must hand in a copy of their speech that they will be presenting in front of their peers during junior and senior lunch Thursday. The speeches must be handed in on Wednesday by 8:30 am in order to be checked. Please hand in speeches to Miss Santesso in Student Services.

Attention all students that have a Period 1, Day 1 spare: You can pick up permission forms for the Crossley Mardi Gras in Student Services. Please have the forms signed and returned by Wednesday May 18th.
