

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MONDAY, MAY 9, 2011 – DAY 1

Clubs and Activities

Attention all drama students past and present. The drama department is travelling Friday to see a political satire called "Animal Farm" featuring our very own Dana Lea McKenzie, acting alongside professional actors. We will miss classes Friday afternoon only. We depart Crossley at 10:45 am, and return in time for buses. Tickets are $14.00. If you'd like a permission form, see Ms. Benson in the drama room. Limited seats. Tickets will be offered on a first come first serve basis!

Sports

There is a mandatory relay practice after school on Friday. Pole vault practice will be happening this week as well. (May 4, 5, 6)

The baseball team kicks off its season today with a game against St. Paul. Teachers are asked to excuse the players at 2:15, and the players are asked to meet in the gym foyer so that rides can be assigned. If there are any baseball fans at EL Crossley, we'd love to see you out cheering on the team...the game starts at 3:30 at Harold Black Park!

The baseball team will practice today at 4:00 at the Merrittville Diamond. The season starts Monday so it's important that all players attend. Anyone who has not paid Mr. Kowalski for this years' team fee should do so as soon as possible.

Girls Slo-Pitch team are asked to hand in their permission forms to Mrs. Isaac. Girls are asked to meet at Chippawa Park at 3pm today. See Mrs. Isaac in the gym foyer for a ride if needed.

Reminder to all Track & Field athletes competing at ZONE tomorrow that the buses are leaving at 7:50am. The buses are returning at 5:30pm. If you ordered a hoodie or T-shirt you can get it at practice tonight.

This is a reminder to Mrs. Mergl's Leadership class that the bus is leaving at 11:05am. Don't be late.

All members of athletic council, there will be a brief meeting today during senior lunch in the gym foyer. Also, any students interested in being part of next year's athletic council are asked to check out the information flyer on the athletics board in the gym foyer and/or speak to either Chad Reece or Laura Sawula. Thank you!
