

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FRIDAY, NOV. 18, 2011 – DAY 2

Clubs and Activities

Attention to all guitar students: there is still room available for next weeks' International Guitar Ensemble performance at Sir Winston Churchill. If you are a senior guitar student next semester and are interested in this workshop please see Mr. Gaines today for a form.

Any music students selling citrus fruit this season are reminded that all order forms and monies are due this Wed.

Marching band members please be at the school this Sunday by 8:30 AM. We have the Toronto Santa Claus Parade and you will be playing to over 1 million people live that day and to a TV audience of close to 10 million viewers. Be well rested and bring money for dinner and some snacks for the day...and have fun. (Nov. 18)

Sports

Boys' hockey team will be doing a fundraiser on Nov. 22 at Boston Pizza in Welland. An error occurred in the previous announcements. Bring your family and friends for the 1/2 off gourmet pasta night from 4-10pm. 10% of your food bill goes directly to the boys' hockey team. One of our lovely players will be assisting your waitress to serve you your food. (Nov. 14, 17, 18)

Congratulations Crossley swim team. At yesterday's swim meet at Brock, the Cyclone swimmers did an awesome job. Devon Casey, Kathryn Hrycusko, Andrew Hrycusko, Emily Durand and Boaz Allon placed first in their individual events. Numerous others placed second or third. Well done Swim Team!!!

Attention to all Sr. Girls' volleyball players: There will be NO practice today after school. Be prepared for practice on Monday. (Nov. 18)

Other

Do you enjoy making crafts? You can earn Community Hours while making crafts for "In the Orchard" Monday afterschool from 4pm - 7pm. See the Community Hours board outside of Student Services for more information. (Nov. 18, 21)

Lunch features for today are chicken fried rice, tortellini, perogies and chicken noodle soup. Dessert is apple crisp. Don't forget Friday's large cookie special.

A reminder that Sobeys' cards are available in the Main Office. (Every Monday)
