

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FRIDAY, SEPT. 23, 2011 – DAY 1

Clubs and Activities

Yearbooks may now be picked up in Rm. 209.

Congratulations to the Crossley Marching Band for a superlative performance last evening in the hamlet of Wainfleet. Once again you've made Crossley proud and you should be very pleased with pulling off a show after only two rehearsals. The fall, winter season of marching band officially starts next Wednesday after school in the music room, and new members are more than welcome. Please see Mr. Gaines for information if you are interested. (Sept. 23)

Looking for community service hours? Fonhill United Church is looking for eager volunteers for a pot-luck supper on Thurs. Sept. 29. See posting outside of Student Services. (Sept. 22, 23)

Attention swimmers! It is that time of year again - time to get your feet wet. If you are interested in joining the Crossley Swim Team, please sign up outside room 314 today. The first swim meet is less than a month away - don't miss out. Sign up to join the swim team today. (Sept. 22, 23, 26)

Sports

Congratulations to the Sr. boys' volleyball team on a well played tournament yesterday placing 2nd at our own ELC Invitational! The boys showed determination and strength as they pushed their way to the finals having a great game against SDCH. Way to go boys! A special thank you to Mr. Blanchard, all Athletic Council members and volunteers who helped organize and run the tournament. (Sept. 23)

Congratulations to the cross country team who ran in yesterday's invitational meet. Good job to the midget girls who placed 3rd as a team and the midget boys who placed 4th as a team. Thanks to als the athletes who ran a division higher especially Lisa Gearing. We are still looking for more gr. 10 males and females for our team. Love to see you out on Monday after school. (Sept. 23)

Students' Council

In the spirit of raising the most money we can for cancer care in Niagara: Students' Council will gladly accept Rankin Cancer Run forms and money Monday morning. Please bring any forms to Student Services. (Sept. 23, 26)

Other

Attention to all graduates who are college bound: Niagara College has generously offered to provide a bus, for free, to students who wish to attend the college information program and Niagara College on October 20. Space will be limited, so pick up a permission form in guidance ASAP if you are interested. (Sept. 22, 23, 26)

*** A reminder to students that there will be no cafeteria services today due to Early Release Day. Buses will arrive shortly after period 2 finishes. *** (Sept. 23)
