

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 7, 2011 – DAY 1

Clubs and Activities

The yearbook committee is looking for new members from all grades. If you would like to help create the Crossley yearbook for 2012, please see Ms. Baker in Room 209 to sign up. Meetings will begin next week but sign up today! Room 209. (Sept. 7, 8)

The Niagara Children's Water Festival is being held for the ninth straight year at the Ball's Fall Conservation Area from September 20th - 23rd. Nearly 4000 Grade 3 and 4 students participate annually and Crossley students have once again been invited to participate. The organizing committee is looking for high school volunteers to assist Lead Presenters at interactive water discovery centres that educate students all about the importance of water and the environment. Student volunteers have the opportunity to see the variety of careers available in the water/environmental field. High school volunteers will be provided with a water festival t-shirt and lunch.

If you are interested in volunteering, please see Miss Keller in Room 113 TODAY. (Sept. 7)

Sports

X-country practice starts Wed 2:30 in the gym foyer. Tennis team signup sheets will be posted on Wednesday in the gym foyer.

Any students interested in trying out for the Golf Team need to attend one of the meetings either at Junior or Senior lunch on Wednesday in room 308. (Sept. 6, 7)

Sr. girls' basketball tryouts for the rest of the week will be at 7 a.m. in the Main Gym. See Mr. Aitchison or Mr. Baty for further details.

There will be a senior boys' volleyball tryout tonight after school in gym C. Please see Mrs. Gibson if you cannot attend.

Tryouts for the junior boys' volleyball team will begin today at 2:30 in Gym AB. There will be another tryout Thursday also at 2:30. Interested individuals who are unable to attend either of these practices should come speak with Mr. Snopek or Mr. Bagnulo.

Students' Council

Attention all grade 9 students: If you are interested in joining our amazing students' council as a Grade 9 Representative please sign up for an information session in student services.
