

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THURSDAY, NOV. 24, 2011 – DAY 2

Clubs and Activities

Any students signed up for Vocal Music second semester have been offered the fantastic opportunity of attending a concert and vocal workshop by the contemporary men's acapella group, 'Cadence'. The best part is that it only costs $5 to attend. The concert/workshop will take place Friday Dec. 2nd in the afternoon. Those vocalists interested in attending need to see Mrs. Barber ASAP to get permission forms. Don't miss out on this excellent opportunity to improve your voice! (Nov. 22, 23, 24)

On Tuesday, November 29th to Wednesday, November 30th, people all around the world will be taking the vow of silence. Stay silent in solidarity with children who are silenced by their denial of rights. For more information, Interact will be in the front foyer Tuesday, Thursday and Friday this week at both junior and senior lunches. The class with the most participation and the most pledges will receive a movie and popcorn. Go silent and stand up for children's rights. (Nov. 22, 23, 24)

Any Gr. 11 and 12 ART or HISTORY students this semester or NEXT semester interested in going on the Royal Ontario Museum field trip on DEC. 14th to see the special MAYAN exhibit along with a tour of the Egyptian antiquities please see Mrs. Barber or Ms. Lymburner for details and consent forms A.S.A.P.!! (Nov. 22, 23, 24)

Colours in the storm cast are asked to drop by the drama room and pick up a schedule for Nov and Dec rehearsal - April is also included, so that you can plan ahead for a busy April. Female shades and wild Mary are to meet in the drama room Wednesday after school. Also, all cast members are called to the music room on Thursday for vocal rehearsal. (Nov. 22, 23, 24)

Chess Club members please bring your completed forms and money to Miss Wheeler today or speak to Mr. Hughes. Those who do not bring a completed form will not go Friday. (Nov. 23, 24)

Citrus money is now overdue, if you have any outstanding orders that have not been handed in please see Mr. Gaines in the music room right after school today. The order is going in on Friday and we need to have confirmation and all money collected by then. (Nov. 23, 24)

Attention to all Crossley dance crew members. A reminder that our next practice is this Friday after school till 3:30. We will meet outside of Ms. Baker's room, room 209. All newcomers are welcome! (Nov. 23, 24)

There WILL be ISCF this Friday after school in the lecture hall until 3:30. Everyone is welcome! (Nov. 24, 25)

Sports

A reminder to all novice rowers that winter training practices continue this week on Thursday from 2:30-4:30. Meet in the small gym. Newcomers are welcome. (Nov. 22, 23, 24)

Attention to all SR boys' basketball players. Please meet Miss Vahrmeyer in the gym at lunch for the distribution of jerseys. (Nov. 24)

Congratulations to the Jr. Boys Basketball players for their 6 point win over Burlington Nelson. The boys have their season opener here tonight at 3:30. Any support from cyclone country would be appreciated! (Nov. 24)

ANNOUNCEMENTS - CONTINUED

Other

Lunch features for today are Asian noodle bowl, pizzoli snackers, chicken fingers and soup of the day is fagioli. Join us tomorrow for our Grey Cup party. Features will be hot dogs, chili cheese dogs, chili, nachos, ice cream sandwiches and hot chocolate.

First Deposits for prom will start being collected Monday at Senior Lunch in the cafe along with orders for Grad Hoodies! (Nov. 24, 25)

A reminder that Sobey's cards are available in the Main Office. (Every Monday)