

Hello Crossley Students & Families,

This is a reminder that Monday, January 10th, there is no instruction for students however, E.L. Crossley teachers will be sending home instructions for students describing how to access their remote online classes for Tuesday January 11 - Friday January 14th. During this time, teachers will be providing synchronous & asynchronous learning each day. It is important that students log into their courses on time and follow the day schedule, as shown below. We will be following the established day schedule and students will attend remote learning from 8:10 am - 2:10 pm daily. There are period transition breaks and a lunch break in the day schedule. Please continue to check your emails frequently for additional updates including a COOP message for our students in the Cooperative Education program. If you require any type of support, please call the school directly Monday, 905 892 2635, our phones will be open at 8:00 am.
